BARCELONA

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Spain
- northeast Spain
- 101,9 km2
- 1,62 million people
- 21,2 °C
- mid-March through May and September through November

LOCAL SIGHTS

- Torre Glories
- Cathedral of Barcelona
- Camp Nou
- Tower of Collserola
- Old hospital de la Santa Creu
- Temple of the Sacred Heart of Jesus
- Mirador de Colom (the most famous statue)
- La sagrada Familia (the jewel in the crown of barcelona)
- streets: Las RAMBLAS, Carrer del Bisbe, …

TORRE GLORIES

- the tallest building in the city,
- 1999
- 38-story skyscraper,
- 144,44 m,
- € 130 million to build,
- renamed after the name of the adjacent square,

CAMP NOU

- 1957,
- the biggest stadium in Europe,
- 48 m,
- currently undergoing renovation,
- will be the second largest football stadium,
- final completion of all renovations: June 26

OLD HOSPITAL DE LA SANTA CREU

- 15th-to-18th-century building complex
- formely served as a hospital, hospice
- National Library of Calatonia
- 1703- Antoni Viladomat (painter)
- 1763- Royal Academy of Medicine of Calatonia

TEMPLE OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

- situated on the summit of Tibidabo,
- with statue of Jesus,
- 1902-1961
- architect Enric Sagnier
- atypical edifice (suprising mix of styles)

TORRE DE COLLSEROLA

- The highest point
- 115 m above the city
- 560 m above the sea